

lected, as hereinafter provided, for the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds shall likewise be kept as a separate fund by said officer.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That "The Commissioners of Cambridge" are hereby authorized, empowered and required to levy annually upon the assessable property of the town of Cambridge a tax sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds by them to be issued in pursuance of this Act, and are also authorized, empowered and required to levy annually upon the assessable property of said town a tax sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds, as they respectively mature and fall due. The tax hereby authorized is for the special purpose herein stated, and is in addition to the tax levied for general purposes as authorized by the charter of the town of Cambridge aforesaid.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the work of grading, paving, curbing, draining or otherwise improving the streets and roadways of the said town of Cambridge as herein provided, shall be done by "The Commissioners of Cambridge," through the agency of a commission, to be known as the Cambridge Street Improvement Commission, the members of which shall serve without pay, and shall be composed of five members all citizens of the town of Cambridge appointed in the following manner, to wit: The Chief Judge of the First Judicial Circuit of Maryland, the Mayor of Cambridge and the President of the Board of Trade of Cambridge, shall be and they are hereby appointed and constituted "The Board of Appointment of the Street Improvement Commission," and as soon as convenient after the passage of this Act shall meet and appoint five discreet men, citizens and tax payers of the Town of Cambridge to act as said "The Cambridge Street Improvement Commission," of which commission the Mayor of Cambridge shall be ex officio a member, with equal rights, authority and responsibility of the other four members of said commission and in case of a vacancy or vacancies in said commission, caused by death, resignation, removal from Cambridge, refusal to serve or otherwise, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by an appointment or appointments to be made by the aforesaid The Board of Appointment of the Street Improvement Commission or a majority of them.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said commission after their appointment shall organize by electing from among its members its own chairman and its own secretary and shall have full power and authority to determine by a majority vote all questions connected with the improvements of the streets and highways aforesaid; after the work on the streets herein-